The above signatories (and others as may be appended to this document) certify that each is authorized to sign any document necessary to conduct business with Immunotec Research Inc. ("Immunotec") and is liable for all contracts entered into with Immunotec jointly and severally. Each acknowledges that they are individually bound to, and must comply with, the terms and conditions of the Immunotec Consultant Application & Agreement and Immunotec's policies and procedures, as they may be amended from time to time. Violation of these documents by any partner, member, shareholder, employee, trustee, or other individual associated with the ownership or management of the entity applicant shall be jointly and severally imputed to the entity of all other owners, partners, members, shareholders, trustees, managers or persons with other ownership or managerial responsibility for the entity. Failure to list all appropriate persons on this Business Entity Registration form shall be grounds for disciplinary sanctions as described in Immunotec's policies and procedures. Any individuals or entity having an ownership interest or management position with the business entity may not have any interest, legal, equitable, ownership, management, or otherwise, in any other Immunotec Consultant business. Transfers of ownership interests in Consultant's business by an entity are subject to Immunotec's policies and procedures. See the Business Guide for a description of the Transfer Policy. This form, together with copies of the entity documents described in Immunotec's policies and procedures, must be sent to Immunotec within 30 days of the entity's enrollment as an Immunotec Independent Consultant. If this form and the entity documents are not received within this time by Immunotec, 300 Joseph Carrier, Vaudreuil-Dorion, Quebec, Canada J7V 5V5, the Consultant Agreement of the entity shall automatically terminate.
