

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Immunotec Obtains $2,780,000 of New Financing

VAUDREUIL-DORION, QC, July 20, 2015 – Immunotec Inc. (TSXV: IMM), a direct-to-consumer company and a leader in the nutritional industry (the “Company” or “Immunotec”), announces that it has obtained additional financing from the Toronto Dominion Bank (“TD Bank”) and a new credit facility from Export Development Canada (“EDC”).

“We are pleased to receive the continued support of TD Bank and partner with EDC for our exportation activities”, said Charles L. Orr, Chief Executive Officer of Immunotec. “These additional funds will enable us to continue to invest in our supply chain platform in order to support our activities and growth.”

Transaction Highlights

- In addition to existing loans, the Corporation now benefits from a new operating loan from TD Bank in a maximum amount of $1,500,000, which is guaranteed by EDC, to be used to finance the growth and activities of the Corporation’s Mexican subsidiaries.
- New reducing term facilities from TD Bank and EDC in the total amount of $1,280,000 will be used namely for the acquisition by the Corporation of fixed assets and the modernisation of Immunotec’s manufacturing infrastructure in support of Immunotec’s export activities.

“Immunotec’s innovative products have struck an international cord, and EDC’s financing is designed to help them take advantage of that increased demand all over the world, not the least of which is their strong upswing in Mexico,” said Julie Pottier, Vice-President, Quebec Region, EDC
